

Don't believe the propaganda!

"The problem today is that Canadian production of high-potency marijuana in British Columbia is a major source of marijuana [in the United States] . . . and it's spreading."

- US Drug "Czar" John Walters

Source: "Canada's pot policy under fire from U.S."
Globe and Mail, September 13, 2002

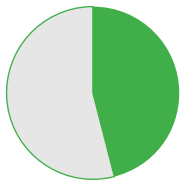

The facts say otherwise...

from Canada

"Canadian-produced marijuana accounts for only approximately 2% of overall U.S. marijuana seizures at its borders."

- United States-Canada Border Drug Threat Assessment, Oct.2004

46%
from Mexico

46% of the cannabis consumed within the U.S. is imported from Mexico.

- United Nations Office for Drug Control and Crime Prevention Global Illicit Drug Trends - 2002

"The U.S. are basically their own main source of marihuana."

- RCMP Report: Marihuana Cultivation in Canada, Nov. 2002
